

Stewart Nigg
Vice President, Executive Compensation, Stock Plans & Mergers & Acquisition Compensation
UnitedHealth Group

Stew is currently a Vice-President in the UnitedHealth Group Total Rewards Department where he leads the executive compensation, stock plan administration and M&A compensation functions. He has spent his 9+ years with UHG working in leadership roles across the executive compensation, stock plan and M&A functions and also spent 2 years leading the Total Rewards function for UHG's Latin American businesses.

Prior to joining UHG in 2015, Stew spent 9 years at EY in various roles within their National Compensation and Benefits practice where his responsibilities spanned across the executive compensation, employee benefit and national tax and corporate transaction practices.

Stew is a graduate of Gustavus Adolphus College with a B.A. in Accounting. He received his J.D. with honors from William Mitchell College of Law.